
LUCINDA MYERS

P.O. Box 1255

(806) 874-0352

Clarendon, Texas 79226

cindymye@verizon.net

Professional Career Objectives:

- To prepare students to become productive members of society.
- To instill in the student a sense of intellectual curiosity, as well as personal, academic, and social accountability.
- To provide a positive learning environment for the student both in and out of the classroom where opportunities to apply critical thinking abound.
- To enhance creativity by encouraging students to reach beyond the confines of the classroom.
- To initiate and integrate theory and research through the experience of knowledge.

Education:

Master of Arts, 2004, West Texas A&M University , Canyon, Texas . Primary field of study Political Science(33 graduate hours) with emphasis on Global and International Law and Human Rights. Secondary field of study: Criminal Justice(21 graduate hours): Corrections and Recidivism.

Master of Arts, 2000, West Texas A&M University , Canyon, Texas . Two fields of study: History(24 graduate hours)with emphasis on the Texas Frontier, Plains Indian Tribes, Ancient European History and the Old South. Sociology(27 graduate hours)with emphasis on Theory including areas of Deviance and Juvenile Delinquency.

Bachelor of Science, 1993, West Texas A&M University , Canyon, Texas . Primary field of study: Sociology with emphasis on Theory.

Forthcoming Articles and Working Papers:

“Southern Reconstruction,” pending

Book Reviews and Article Reviews:

Review of Kathryn O’Conner, Presidio La Bahia , 1721-1846 (1987).

Review of Bobby Weaver, Castro’s Colony: 1842-1865 (1985).

Current and Future Research Projects:

Revision of paper on Kiowa Culture as a book.

Other Professional Development:

Completion of Seminars in Deviance and outside project in Ethics.

Prison reform research through educational opportunities.

Professional Experience:

Professor – 2010-present

WTAMU — adjunct professor— Political Science

Clarendon College — Sociology, History, Political Science

Professor – 2000-2008.

Clarendon College – adjunct professor— American History, Texas History, American Government, Texas Government, Sociology, Social Problems, Criminal Justice. Taught WebCt online courses, distance learning courses, as well as traditional, on-campus lecture courses.

Professor—2003-2007.

TDCJ—T.L. Roach Unit in cooperation with Windham Independent School District—

American History, Texas History, American Government, Texas Government, Social Problems.

Professional Business Work Experience:

Funeral Industry: 1992-2004. Myers-Long Funeral Directors: Owner and Grief Counselor.

Areas of Specialization and Interest:

Kiowa Culture, Southern Reconstruction, Texas Frontier, and Local Archaeology.

International Law and Human Rights.