

Leslie Kay Schnaufer
Clarendon College
Box 968
Clarendon ,Texas 79226
leslie.schnaufer@region16.net

EDUCATION:

B.A. Oklahoma Panhandle State University
Speech/Drama, History
Secondary Teaching Degree
M.A. West Texas A & M. University
Speech/History
Texas Tech University
post graduate -Theatre , Speech, Education
Eastern New Mexico University
post graduate-Communications, Education
University of Houston
post graduate-Communications
Amarillo College
Literature
Northern Montana University
post graduate-Theatre ,Communications

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Presently teaching – High School Fine Arts and Speech at Samnorwood I.S.D., Samnorwood, TX.
Lobbyist for Texas Public Libraries, Austin, TX.
18 years as Chairman of the Clarendon College Fine Arts Center, Clarendon, Texas.
(Teaching College classes in the following areas: Speech, Interpersonal Communication, Theatre, Acting, Stage Design, Fine Arts.
Directing 3-5 major college theatre productions and talent contest per year ,
Contest Director - 2-4 U.I.L. High School 1 Act Play Contests each year.)
Director – The Fair Theatre Community Players -Plainview, Texas .
Wrote and Directed, "Saga of Samnorwood", Samnorwood Fall Festival.
Wrote and directed , "150 Pioneers , Baca County Centennial", Springfield, Colorado .
Wrote and directed, "Ballad of Baca Bob", Baca County Little Theatre ,Colorado .
Colorado City I.S.D., Colorado City ,Texas- teaching: High School Speech, Theatre and U.I.L. 1- Act Play Director.
West Texas A& M.- teaching: Speech, Interpersonal Communications.

Public Relations –Oklahoma Panhandle State University.

Miss America affiliated pageant judge.

Directed or judged approximately 200 beauty pageants and talent contests.

News Woman K.F.D.A. CH. 10 Television, Amarillo, Texas.