

Laban W. Tubbs

laban.tubbs@clarendoncolleg.edu

P.O. Box 968
Clarendon, Texas
(806) 874- 4840

Education:

Master of Science in Animal Science received August, 1988, from New Mexico State University, Las Cruces, NM.

Bachelor of Science in Animal Science received May, 1986, from New Mexico State University, Las Cruces, NM.

Work Experience:

Instructor: Ranch & Feedlot Operations Program, Clarendon College, Clarendon, TX. August 1994 – Present.

Responsible for the education of students pursuing knowledge in the field of ranching and/or feedlot operations. Duties include preparation and presentation of lecture material and arranging additional educational opportunities for students through field trips or guest lectures.

Senior Research Assistant, New Mexico State University, Corona, NM, June 1989 – July 1994.

Assisted in research projects being directed by faculty members at New Mexico State University. Responsible for all facets of a range livestock research center including daily livestock care, collection and recording of research data, construction and/or maintenance of fences, corrals, windmills, pipelines, and water systems.

Quality Assurance Manager, Monfort Beef Packing, Cactus, TX, August 1988 – June 1989.

Responsible for the wholesomeness and quality of the finished meat product through direct supervision of Quality Assurance Supervisors and indirect supervision of Quality Assurance Technicians. Served as company representative when dealing with customer product claims regarding product quality