

Linda M. Rowland
Mathematics Coordinator and Instructor
Clarendon College, Clarendon, Texas 79226
E-mail: linda.rowland@clarendoncollege.edu

EDUCATION

- M.S. Education in Curriculum and Instruction, West Texas A&M University (2008)
- B.S. Science of Mathematics, University of Texas of the Permian Basin (1989)
- A.A. Associates of Arts, Odessa College (1986)

EXPERIENCE

Mathematics Coordinator and Instructor, Clarendon College, 2007-Present.
Teaches Developmental Math, College Algebra, Trigonometry, Math for Business and Social Science I and II, and Calculus I, II, and III.

Adjunct Instructor, Clarendon College, 2005-2007.
Taught Developmental Math I, II, and III.

Math Department Head and Instructor, Hedley CISD, 1992-2007.
Taught Junior High Math, Geometry, Algebra I and II, Trigonometry, Advance Mathematics, Calculus. Chose the curricula to be taught in the math classes for sixth thru twelfth grades. Coached UIL math, number sense, and calculator.
Served as the National Honor Society Advisor.

Teacher, Burleson Elementary (Odessa, Texas), 1989-1992.
Taught Gifted and Talented, fourth and sixth grades.

Accounts Payable Clerk, Exxon Inc. (Midland, Texas), 1981-1986.

PUBLICATIONS RELEVANT TO PROPOSAL: None

SYNERGISTIC ACTIVITIES

Teaches Dual Credit College Algebra and Trigonometry to high school students through high school teachers, WebCT, and MyMathLab.

Collaborates with West Texas A&M University (WTAMU) to promote STEM to incoming college students and to encourage transfer to WTAMU.

AWARDS

GTE Gift, 1995