

Rebecca Yelverton
8940 Echo Rd
P O Box 417
Claude
TX 79019
M:806 382-3171
E: reyelverton@yahoo.com

Education and Training:

Master of Arts	History	West Texas A&M University	May 2010
Bachelor of Science	History	West Texas A&M University	May 1998

Key Achievements:

- participated in the PACETAH Grant (Region 16) for the past 4 years; through this grant I have had extensive training in teaching with primary sources.
- recipient of the Golden Horseshoe Award from the school board for excellence in the classroom.
- chosen to help write curricula for the Ken Burns documentary The War.
- created WWII Educational Trunk for Panhandle Plain Historical Museum.

Career History

Claude Independent School District

August 2001 - present

Social Studies Teacher

Responsibilities include support Claude ISD/s vision, mission and statements. Develop and implement educational and inspiring lesson plans. Co ordinate educational field trips to supplement lessons.

- American Government
- American History
- Citizenship

Previous Employers

August 2000-May 2001

Groom ISD

Special Education Aide

August 1999- May 2000

El Campo Middle School

8th American History

August 1998-May 1999

North Heights Alternative School

High School Social Studies

Interests:

- Visiting museums, attending rodeos and moderate running.

References:

Scott Wilkerson	Principal Claude High School	806 226-2191
Regan Oles	Principal Claude Elementary	806 226-3522
Danna Beck	Region 16 Social Studies Curricula Director	806 677-5184