COURSE DESCRIPTION

Intensive study of and practice in writing processes, from invention and researching to drafting, revising, and editing, both individually and collaboratively. Emphasis on effective rhetorical choices, including audience, purpose, arrangement, and style. Focus on writing the academic essay as a vehicle for learning, communicating, and critical analysis.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

English Composition and Rhetoric I partially satisfies the requirements for the Associate degree at Clarendon College and is designed for transfer to a senior college.

COURSE VALUE

Ability to communicate across the curriculum; ability to interpret what is read and to accept or reject ideas projected from that reading; designed to fulfill the requirements of the core curriculum.

REQUIRED INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS

Textbook: Bullock, Richard, Maureen Daly Goggin, and Francine Weinberg. The Norton Field Guide to Writing, with Readings and Handbook. Fourth Edition. New York: W.W. Norton and Company, Inc. 2016. The ISBN # is 978-0-393-61739-9

Other material: Students must come to class with paper, pencils or pens, and a notebook for taking notes.

STUDENT REQUIREMENTS

Students are expected to come to class on time and have the necessary materials for class. Students coming in after the door has been closed are disruptive to the class, so please be courteous to your instructor and fellow classmates by being on time. Always have extra pencils/pens and paper so that you will be prepared for whatever activity we have that day.

METHODS OF INSTRUCTION

Course material will be taught through the combination of lectures, collaborative exercises, group work activities, whole class discussions, presentations, demonstrations, peer reviews, readings, media examples such as online videos, internet, conference drafts, office hour conferences, library conferences, and in-class writings.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

As a result of this course, you should be able to meet the learning outcomes listed below.

(You should expect to meet these outcomes only if you honor all course policies, attend classes regularly, complete all assigned work in good faith and on time, and meet all other course expectations of you as a student.)

THECB Core Objectives

1. Critical Thinking Skills: to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, analysis, evaluation, and synthesis of information (CR)
2. Communication Skills: to include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral, and visual communication (COM)
3. Personal Responsibility: to include the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision making. (PR)
4. Teamwork: to include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal (TW)

English Department Program Objectives

1. The students will understand and demonstrate writing processes through inventions, organization, drafting, revision, editing, and/or presentation.
2. The students will develop the ability to research and write a documented paper.

3. The students will be able to demonstrate an awareness of the scope and variety of works in the arts and the humanities.
4. The students will demonstrate understanding of various works of literature as expressions of individual and human values within a historical and social context.

Learning Outcomes

1. Demonstrate knowledge of individual and collaborative writing processes. (Assess CT, COM, PR, and TW through the proposal essay)
2. Develop ideas with appropriate support and attribution. (Assess CT and COM through proposal essay)
3. Write in a style appropriate to audience and purpose. (Assess CT and COM through proposal essay)
4. Read, reflect, and respond critically to a variety of texts. (Asses CT through essay or in-class activity.)
5. Use Edited American English in academic essays (Assess CT and COM through essays and quizzes)

PAPER FORMAT & SUBMISSIONS POLICY

Your major writing assignments will meet the following criteria:

- Format: MLA
- Top, Bottom, Left, & Right Margins: 1 inch
- Spacing: Double

I understand that you will be writing your papers on college-ruled notebook paper. Please write or print neatly and legibly, as I will be reading and grading well over 100 papers weekly. I will not accept documents if they fail to meet the aforementioned requirements. If I can't read your writing, I will not have the enjoyment of learning about you or assisting you in your journey toward a degree. I look forward to this part of our class more than any other, and I can't emphasize enough the importance of it.

DEFINITION OF LETTER GRADES FOR FINAL SEMESTER GRADE

A	90 – 100%
B	80 – 89%
C	70 – 79%

• Profiles
• Literary Analysis
In-class Writings & Participation	+ 20%
	100%

ATTENDANCE, TARDIES, & ABSENCES

If students skip class, it is impossible to participate. I grade participation. Students must notify me via e-mail prior to the absence if they wish to receive an excused absence for that particular day. Tardies will count as absences if students arrive after I have already recorded attendance. It is disruptive and disrespectful to arrive late if your peers are in the middle of a quiz or if your instructor is in the middle of a lecture.

RESPECTFUL BEHAVIOR

Students are required to treat one another with respect. Students are entitled to personal opinions, but they must be presented in a tactful manner. Any derogatory comments regarding gender, race, religion, sexual orientation, etc. will not be tolerated in the classroom. Acknowledge the “etc.” Numerous comments could offend peers and these subjects are not limited to the ones mentioned in this document.

LATE ASSIGNMENT GRADING POLICY

I do not accept late work. Assignments will be collected on the due dates. If there are extenuating circumstances that affect the entire class, such as a lockdown or other emergency, consideration will be given for that instance. There may be times when due assignments will be collected and delivered to me by the designated courier. In such instances, I will return the assignments on the next allowable meeting.

CONFERENCE DRAFTS

Students are allowed to submit a conference draft (an early version of the essay that I will review similar to the way I would provide feedback during an office conference during office hours). Conference drafts must be a complete rough draft of your essay. When I receive a conference draft, I will review the document and provide the same feedback and marginal comments I would provide if I were grading the assignment (with the exception of the actual letter grade). Conference drafts should be submitted before the assignment’s deadline.

COLLEGE POLICIES

Academic Integrity Policy

Clarendon College is committed to a philosophy of honesty and academic integrity. It is the responsibility of all members of the Clarendon College community to maintain academic integrity at Clarendon College by refusing to participate in or tolerate academic dishonesty. Any act of academic dishonesty will be regarded by the faculty and administration as a serious offense.

Academic dishonesty violations include, but are not limited to: (1) obtaining an examination, classroom activity, or laboratory exercise by stealing or collusion; (2) discovering the content of an examination, classroom activity, laboratory exercise, or homework assignment before it is given; (3) observing the work of another during an examination or providing answers to another during the course of an examination; (4) using an unauthorized source of information during an examination, classroom activity, laboratory exercise, or homework assignment ; (5) entering an office, classroom, laboratory, or building to obtain unfair advantage; (6) taking an examination for another person; (7) completing a classroom activity, laboratory exercise, homework assignment, or research paper for another person; (8) altering grade records; (9) using any unauthorized form of an electronic communication device during an examination, classroom activity, or laboratory exercise; and/or, (10) plagiarism. (Plagiarism is defined as the using, stating, offering, or reporting as one's own, an idea, expression, or production of another person's work without proper credit. This includes, but is not limited to, turning in a paper purchased or acquired from any source, written by someone other than the student claiming credit, or stolen from another student.)

Students are responsible for reporting known acts of academic dishonesty to a faculty member, the program coordinator, the associate dean, and/or dean. Any student with knowledge of a violation who fails to report it shall him/herself be in violation and shall be considered to have committed an act of academic dishonesty. Additionally, any student who reports him/herself in violation of this code before it is likely that another might consider this possibility will be understood as repentant and acting in good faith. Though the confession will not excuse the student for the violation, the confession will be considered and the violation should not result in suspension from school except in the most extreme cases.

While academic integrity and honesty are the responsibility of the individual student, each individual faculty member, teaching assistant, and/or laboratory instructor is responsible for classroom management and for maintaining ethical behavior within the classroom and/or laboratory. Faculty who discover or suspect a violation should discuss the matter with the suspected violator(s) and attempt to resolve the case at that point. In cases of convincing evidence, the faculty member should take appropriate action. The faculty member and student should complete a Counseling Sheet regarding the violation. (The Counseling Sheet should contain at a minimum the date and time of the violation, the course, the instructor's name, the student's name, an explanation of the infraction or facts of the case, and the resolution to the incident.) This form should be signed by the student, faculty member, program coordinator, and the Dean of Students. The Dean of Students will maintain a file on all violations. If a faculty member prefers to report the case directly to the Dean of Students, it remains his/her prerogative to do so. Additionally, if the faculty member and the accused student cannot reach a resolution or if the faculty member believes that suspension from school is the only fair sanction, the case should immediately be reported by the faculty member, in writing, to the Dean of Students. If the Dean of Students observes any trends in student behavior which involve more than one violation or act of academic dishonesty, the Dean is responsible for notifying all faculty members involved, for contacting the student(s) involved, and after consultation with the faculty member(s) involved for taking the appropriate action. The Dean of Students is responsible for the timely notification (normally within two weeks) to all parties of an action taken. Students wishing to appeal a disciplinary decision involving academic integrity or acts of academic dishonesty may do so through the Student Appeals and Grievance Procedure.

Withdrawing from (Dropping) the Course

If you decide that you are unable to complete this course or that it will be impossible to complete the course with a passing grade, you may drop the course and receive a "W" on your transcript instead. (The last day to drop a course is available on the Academic Calendar, located at the Student link on the Clarendon College website.) Withdrawal from a course is a formal procedure that you must initiate. If you do not go through the formal withdrawal procedure, you will receive whatever grade you have earned.

Whether to drop a class or not requires a lot of thought. According to Texas state law a student is only allowed to drop the same class twice before he/she will be charged triple the tuition amount for taking the class a third time or more. Furthermore, beginning with the Fall 2007 semester, students in Texas may only drop a total of 6 courses throughout their entire undergraduate career. After the 6th dropped class, he/she will no longer be able to withdraw from any classes.

Accommodation Statement

REQUIREMENTS OF THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT:

In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, any student who feels that he or she may need any special assistance or accommodation because of an impairment or disabling condition should contact the Associate Dean of Enrollment Services at 806-874-4837 / janean.reish@clarendoncollege.edu or visit the Clarendon campus at Clarendon College. It is the policy of Clarendon College to provide reasonable accommodation as required to afford equal educational opportunity. It is the student's responsibility to contact the Associate Dean of Enrollment Services.

Nondiscrimination Policy

Clarendon College, in accordance with applicable federal and state law, prohibits discrimination, including harassment, on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, religion, sex, disability, age, sexual orientation, or veteran status.

It is the policy of Clarendon College not to discriminate based on gender, age, disability, race, color, religion, marital status, veteran's status, national or ethnic origin, or sexual orientation. Harassment of a student in class, i.e., a pattern of behavior directed against a particular student with the intent of humiliating or intimidating that student will not be tolerated. The mere expression of one's ideas is not harassment and is fully protected by academic freedom, but personal harassment of individual students is not permitted.

STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The role of Clarendon College is to encourage individuals of all ages to develop their skills and talents based on their abilities and interests, so that collectively they may contribute to the growth and development of this democracy. College policies, procedures, and regulations are formulated to promote an appropriate teaching and learning environment where each student has the freedom to learn and where the constitutional rights of others are protected. The concept of rights and freedom, no matter how basic or widely accepted, carries with it corresponding responsibilities. Students, as well as other members of the college community, enjoy the same constitutional and civil rights guaranteed all citizens; at the same time, they are subject to the laws of the nation, the State of Texas, and the local community. All members of the college community have a strong responsibility to protect and maintain an academic climate in which the freedom to learn can be enjoyed by all. To this end, certain basic regulations and policies have been developed to govern the behavior of students as members of the college community.

Violations of student conduct regulations will be handled through the Office of the Vice President of Student Services. Violations of federal, state, and/or local laws make a student subject to civil or criminal action in addition to disciplinary action by the College. Each student is responsible for knowing the policies and regulations of the College

Grievance/Appeals

If you have a dispute concerning your grade or policies in this class, it is the student's responsibility to contact the instructor to discuss the matter. Should things remain unresolved, please follow the procedures described in the Clarendon College Student Handbook or College Policy Manual.

CHANGES TO POLICIES, DEADLINES, OR SYLLABUS

The policies and course calendar are subject to change according to the needs of the class. Students will be notified in a timely manner if such changes occur. Students are responsible for reading and making adjustments according to the most recent version of the course syllabus.
