Course Description:

HIST 1301 United States History I

A survey of the social, political, economic, cultural, and intellectual history of the United States from the pre-Columbian era to the Civil War/Reconstruction period. United States History I includes the study of pre-Columbian, colonial, revolutionary, early national, slavery and sectionalism, and the Civil War/Reconstruction eras. Themes that may be addressed in United States History I include: American settlement and diversity, American culture, religion, civil and human rights, technological change, economic change, immigration and migration, and creation of the federal government.

Statement of Purpose:

This course partially satisfies the requirements for the state of Texas core curriculum requirements, and the requirements for the Associate Degree at Clarendon College.

Required Text:

Your textbook for this course is U.S. History from OpenStax. A link to this free digital textbook can be found in the "Syllabus and Quick Links" Section in Open LMS. There are also links to specific assigned readings from the textbook in each section of the course.

Methods of Instruction:

This course centers upon reading of the course text and other course materials. Since there is no face-to-face discussion or participation, it is imperative for the student to read and review course materials regularly and maintain a high level of self-involvement in the course.

Core Objectives

In accordance with recommendations from the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board, all American History courses at Clarendon College will address the following core objectives:

- Critical Thinking Skills - to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information.
 - This will be measured throughout the Discussions and Chapter Assignments.
- Communication Skills - to include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication.
 - This will be measured throughout the Discussions.
- Personal Responsibility - to include the ability to connect choices, actions and consequences to ethical decision-making.
 - This will be measured throughout the Quizzes and Chapter Assignments.
- Social Responsibility: to include intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global.
 - This will be measured throughout the Quizzes and Chapter Assignments.

Learning Outcomes:

Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Create an argument through the use of historical evidence.
 - a. Assesses CT, COM, PR, and SR with a term paper
2. Analyze and interpret primary and secondary sources.
 - a. Assesses CT with chapter assignment exercises.
3. Analyze the effects of historical, social, political, economic, cultural, and global forces on this period of United States history.
 - a. Assesses CT, COM, PR, and SR with same term paper as LO 1.

Grading Policies:

The final semester grades will be figured as set in the current catalog:

90-100 = A 80-89 = B 70-79 = C 60-69 = D 59 or Below = F

Grades will be calculated as follows:

Chapter Quizzes (16) = 55% of final grade

Assignments (16) = 25% of final grade

Discussions (6) = 15% of final grade

Term Paper (1) = 5% of final grade

- Chapter Quizzes

- Each chapter quiz should be taken after reviewing the respective learning resources. Each quiz will be timed. The time will be dependent upon the number of questions in the respective quiz. Typically, each quiz is only available for 30 minutes. The course textbook and notes may be used during the quiz. However, there may not be enough time to search for each answer.
- Assignments
 - There will be assignments for each chapter. This will consist of you reading the course textbook and or viewing a document and answering questions that are addressed in the assignment. Answers should be in no less than 50 words. Make sure all questions in the assignment are addressed. Make sure your assignment is submitted and not left in draft format as drafts are not graded.
- Discussions
 - Please answer the provided questions which appear in the link below in my initial post- be sure to number/label them. Then, reply to at least three of your classmates with regards to the answers they provided. These replies should be focused upon the accuracy and completeness of answers and provide insight into the original question and the topic at hand. Replies to classmates should be 30-50 words in length and consist of substantially more than "I agree" or "Good Answer. You are not here to critique your classmates; you are here to help each other see other views and add on to what others may not have gathered from the reading. Be respectful. Uploading documents will not count, posts must be typed into the discussion board itself.
- Term Paper
 - Term Paper: A paper, 2-3 pages in length, will be written at some point throughout the semester. It is to be saved as a PDF file and typed in MLA format. This paper will consist of choosing a historical event, summarizing and analyzing that event, arguing why it is important and then determining the personal and social responsibility associated with the event.
- Final Exam: The “Final Exam” will be considered the Chapter Quiz in Chapter 16. This quiz will count the exact same as all the other quizzes. It will be available during the week of finals. Pay close attention to your due dates.

Checking your Grades: Check your grades in OpenLMS. Do not assume the course total is accurate until all assignments in the course have been graded. For instance, if you did not complete a graded activity, the course total/grade will not be accurate until I replace those uncompleted activities with zeros.

Class Participation and Attendance:

As stated earlier, class participation and attendance is required and expected. It is vital for the education of the student as well as the other students for each student to participate in class discussions and to be involved in the learning process.

Online Attendance Policy

Regular attendance is mandatory in all online courses. Specific activities will be identified each week or during each chapter that must be completed in order for students to be considered “in attendance.” Failure to complete these assignments can result in forfeiture of Financial Aid and failure of the class.

My Policy: For this course, I will submit an attendance report each Monday morning. Students who are following the online attendance policy are marked "present." This status can be checked in your student portal.

Grievance Policy : If you have a dispute concerning your grade or policies in this class, it is your responsibility to FIRST contact the instructor, either by e-mail or in person, to discuss the matter. Should things remain unresolved after this initial contact, please follow the procedures described in the Clarendon College Catalogue. In the vast majority of cases, the matter can be resolved at the instructor/student level, and learning to communicate your concerns in a civilized manner is part of the college experience

Required Enrollment Verification Activity:

Students who fail to complete the Syllabus Agreement & Enrollment Verification Activity by the official census date may not be able to continue in the course. This could result in an F for the course and forfeiture of Financial Aid. The census date for this term can be found on the Academic Calendar located at the Inside CC link on Clarendon College’s home page.

Withdrawal: If you decide that you are unable to complete this course or that it will be impossible to complete the course with a passing grade, you may drop the course and receive a “W” on our transcript instead. Withdrawal from a course is a formal procedure that you must initiate. If you do not go through the formal withdrawal procedure, you will receive a grade of “F” on your transcript. A student is permitted to drop a course if he/she obtains an official drop slip from the office and has the instructor sign the slip before the 12th class week. Remember, a student is only allowed to drop the same class twice before he/she will be charged triple the tuition amount for taking the class a third time or more. Furthermore, beginning with the Fall 2007 semester, students in Texas may only drop a total of 6 courses throughout their entire undergraduate career. After the 6th course, he/she will no longer be able to withdraw from any classes.

Classroom Policies:

Classroom Conduct

Failure to comply with lawful direction of a classroom instructor is a disruption for all students enrolled in the class. Cheating violations include, but are not limited to: (1) obtaining an examination, classroom activity, or laboratory exercise by stealing or collusion; (2) discovering the content of an examination, classroom activity, laboratory exercise, or homework assignment before it is given; (3) using an unauthorized source of information during an examination, classroom activity, laboratory exercise, or homework assignment; (4) entering an office or building to obtain unfair advantage; (5) taking an examination for another person; (6) completing a classroom activity, laboratory exercise, homework assignment, or research paper for another person; (7) altering grade records; (8) using any unauthorized form of electronic communication device during an examination, classroom activity, or laboratory exercise; (9) Plagiarism.

Plagiarism is the using, stating, offering, or reporting as one's own, an idea, expression, or production of another person without proper credit. Disciplinary actions for cheating in a course are at the discretion of the individual instructor. The instructor of that course will file a report with the Vice-President of Student Services when a student is caught cheating in the course, whether it be a work-force or academic course. The report shall include the course, instructor, student's name, and the type of cheating involved. Students who are reported as cheating to the Vice-President of Student Services more than once shall be disciplined by the Vice-President of Student Services. The Vice-President of Student Services will notify all involved parties within fourteen days of any action taken.

Accommodation Statement

REQUIREMENTS OF THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT:

In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, any student who feels that he or she may need any special assistance or accommodation because of an impairment or disabling condition should contact the Associate Dean of Enrollment Services at 806-874-4837 / janean.reish@clarendoncollege.edu or visit the Clarendon campus at Clarendon College. It is the policy of Clarendon College to provide reasonable accommodation as required to afford equal educational opportunity. It is the student's responsibility to contact the Associate Dean of Enrollment Services.

Nondiscrimination Policy

Clarendon College, in accordance with applicable federal and state law, prohibits discrimination, including harassment, on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, religion, sex, disability, age, sexual orientation, or veteran status.

It is the policy of Clarendon College not to discriminate based on gender, age, disability, race, color, religion, marital status, veteran's status, national or ethnic origin, or sexual orientation. Harassment of a student in class, i.e., a pattern of behavior directed against a particular student with the intent of humiliating or intimidating that student will not be tolerated. The mere expression of one's ideas is not harassment and is fully protected by academic freedom, but personal harassment of individual students is not permitted.

Student Rights and Responsibilities

Dropping a Course:

A student who is enrolled in a developmental course for TSI purposes may not drop his/her only developmental course unless the student completely withdraws from the college. A student may drop any other course with a grade of “W” any time after the census date for the semester and on or before the end of the 12th week of a long semester, or on or before the last day to drop a class of a term as designated in the college calendar. The request for permission to drop a course is initiated by the student by procuring a drop form from the Office of Student Services. (Refer to other policies concerning this issue in the current college catalog online.)

Withdrawal from College:

When a student finds it necessary to withdraw from school before the end of the semester, he or she should obtain a withdrawal form from the Office of Student Services. Students may also withdraw from the college by sending a written request for such action to the Registrar’s Office. The request must include the student’s signature, the student’s current address, social security number and course information details. Students who withdraw after the census date for the semester and on or before the end of the 12th week of a long semester, or on or before the last day to drop a class of a term as designated in the college calendar will be assigned a grade of “W.”

Student Expectations and Guidelines:

In addition to the previously stated expectations and guidelines, students are expected to adhere to the following:

- Students must routinely (4-5 times/week) log on to the course for updates and changes.
- Students are responsible for any technological requirements for utilizing an online class. Having a good internet connection and an up-to-date browser are important for this course as it is an online course so it will use a variety of web resources.
- Students will have some time-based flexibility to complete assignments. However, it is vital for the success of the student that course be completed in an organized manner and not rushed through towards the end of the availability period of the assignment. Waiting until the last minute to complete the work is not acceptable and extensions will not be given on assignments.
- Communication with the instructor is necessary if there are questions or concerns that arise during the semester.
- On the Term Paper, I require that you save your document in a PDF file as those can be opened by most programs.
