Laptop or device to access online course

Pen, highlighter, spiral, binder

Student Requirements

The student will participate in practicals of each type of haircut, and be given written examinations of each. The class will always have a Question and Answer segment.

Methods of Instruction

The class will begin with a lecture, then with a practical demonstration with a discussion about the content of the lecture and the demonstration.

Course Objectives

Identify reference points on the head form and understand their role in haircutting

Define angles, elevations, and guidelines

Demonstrate the safe and proper use of the various tools of haircutting.

Demonstrate the mastery of the four basic haircuts.

Demonstrate mastery of other haircutting techniques.

The student will learn the do's and do not's of client consultation

Grading Policies:

Theory grades will be as follows:

100-90 A

89-80 B

70-79 C

69-0 F must be repeated

If a student misses a test, they will be required to take the missed test before they can take the current test.

A student's final grade will be made available through Campus Connect at Clarendon College's website¹¹

Classroom Policies:

Students must clock in or out, when entering or leaving the building failure to do so can result in loss of hours. Students must not clock other students in or out. This is not a rule of the Clarendon Cosmetology department; it is a regulation of the Texas Department of Licensing and Regulations.

Chewing gum will not be permitted in the Student Salon.

CELL PHONES:

Cell phones are prohibited in the classroom and the student salon. Students may use cell phones in the break room and when they leave the department. Students must let family members and friends know they will be in theory class from 8:10- 10:00 on Monday-Thursday.

Classroom Conduct

Failure to comply with lawful direction of a classroom instructor is a disruption for all students enrolled in the class. Cheating violations include, but are not limited to: (1) obtaining an examination, classroom activity, or laboratory exercise by stealing or collusion; (2) discovering the content of an examination, classroom activity, laboratory exercise, or homework assignment before it is given; (3) using an unauthorized source of information during an examination, classroom activity, laboratory exercise, or homework assignment; (4) entering an office or building to obtain unfair advantage; (5) taking an examination for another person; (6) completing a classroom activity, laboratory exercise, homework assignment, or research paper for another person; (7) altering grade records; (8) using any unauthorized form of electronic communication device during an examination, classroom activity, or laboratory exercise; (9) Plagiarism. Plagiarism is the using, stating, offering, or reporting as one's own, an idea, expression, or production of another person without proper credit.

Disciplinary actions for cheating in a course are at the discretion of the individual instructor. The instructor of that course will file a report with the Vice President of Student Services when a student is caught cheating in the course, whether it be a workforce or academic course. The report shall include the course, instructor, student's name, and the type of cheating involved. Students who are reported as cheating to the Vice President of Student Services more than once shall be disciplined by the Vice President. The Vice President will notify all involved parties within fourteen days of any action taken.

American with Disabilities Act Statement:

Clarendon College provides reasonable accommodations for persons with temporary or permanent disabilities. Should you require special accommodations, notify the Office of Student Services (806-874-3571 or 800-687- 9737). We will work with you to make whatever accommodations we need to make.

Dropping a Course:

A student who is enrolled in a developmental course for TSI purposes may not drop his/her only developmental course unless the student completely withdraws from the college. A student may drop any other course with a grade of "W" any time after the census date for the semester and on or before the end of the 12th week of a long semester, or on or before the last day to drop a class of a term as designated in the college calendar. The request for permission to drop a course is initiated by the student by procuring a drop form from the Office of Student Services. (Refer to other policies concerning this issue in the current college catalog online.)

Withdrawal from College:

When a student finds it necessary to withdraw from school before the end of the semester, he or she should obtain a withdrawal form from the Office of Student Services. Students may also withdraw from the college by sending a written request for such action to the Registrar's Office. The request must include the student's signature, the student's current address, social security number and course information details. Students who withdraw after the census date for the semester and on or before the end of the 12th week of a long semester, or on or before the last day to drop a class of a term as designated in the college calendar will be assigned a grade of "W."

The Cosmetology Handbook:

Policies and Procedures will be given out the first day of class
